DISCOVERY ORDER

DARRYL WILSON,
Plaintiff,
v.

UNITED AIR LINES, INC., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.15-cv-00472-VC (JSC)

LEON MILLER,
Plaintiff,
v.

UNITED AIR LINES, INC., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.15-cv-00457-VC (JSC)

Upon review of the record in these related cases, and having held a discovery conference with the parties on November 13, 2017, the Court orders discovery to be completed as set forth below.

1 1. Depositions of Plaintiffs

2 United shall take the depositions of Mr. Miller, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. John on the dates
3 previously noticed. Defendants shall have up to 14 hours per plaintiff. An addition to the seven 4 hour default limit in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is reasonable given that each plaintiff
5 has his own independent claims and needs to be deposed about liability and damages. While 6 United previously deposed Mr. John and Mr. Miller, the district court ruled that this deposition
7 time would not count against United's time. (John, 15-00475-VC, Dkt. No. 92 at 46.) Indeed, 8 Mr. John and Mr. Miller, through counsel, agreed that they were to be re-deposed. (Id. at 42.)

9 2. Written Discovery

10 The parties shall complete responses to written discovery served before July 23, 2017 (that 11 is, served at least 30 days before the close of the extended fact discovery deadline). Accordingly,
12 United shall complete the production they contend was paused in light of prior counsel's 13 indication that he was going to move to withdraw. If any of that uncompleted production relates 14 to the jobs applied for by these plaintiffs, United shall produce the relevant discovery before each 15 plaintiff's deposition. To the extent Mr. Miller, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. John were served with 16 deposition notices prior to July 23, 2017 that included requests for production of documents, they 17 shall comply with those Notices.

18 Any discovery disputes regarding the outstanding written discovery shall be brought to the 19 Court's attention as follows. First, the parties must meet and confer in person or by telephone on 20 or before November 22, 2017. Second, if the meet and confer is not wholly successful, the party 21 seeking to compel a further production shall serve the opposing party with his/its portion of the 22 joint letter brief required by the Court's Standing Order on or before noon on November 29, 2017.
23 The opposing party shall serve its responsive portion of the letter brief on or before the close of 24 business on December 1, 2017. The moving party shall file the letter brief (including any added 25 reply portion) with the Court by close of business December 4, 2017.

26 3. Depositions of United

27 Plaintiffs may use in this action (whether in opposition to summary judgment, at trial or 28 otherwise) any depositions that were taken by the bellwether plaintiffs; however, they may not

1 notice any further depositions. Fact discovery reopened in these cases on April 12, 2016. (John,
2 115-00475 VC, Dkt. No. 120.) In March 2017, the district court ordered a fact discovery deadline
3 of June 27, 2017. (Dkt. No. 247 at 5.) Plaintiff's counsel moved for a stay of the action due to 4 lead counsel's health on May 31, 2017. (Id. Dkt. No. 253.) On June 8, 2017, the district court
5 stayed the case until July 2, 2017, and extended the fact discovery cut-off to August 28, 2017. (Id.
6 Dkt. No. 257.) More than two months later, on August 21, 2017, Plaintiffs' counsel moved to 7 withdraw. (Dkt. No. 260.) Prior to that date—which was one week before the expiration of the 8 extended fact discovery deadline—Plaintiffs did not notice any United depositions and did not 9 otherwise do anything to schedule any depositions, including even identifying any potential
10 United witnesses to United. The district court held a telephonic hearing the following day. Once 11 again Plaintiffs' counsel did not suggest that Plaintiffs still had depositions to notice and take even 12 though counsel specifically discussed the scheduling of Plaintiffs' depositions. (Id. Dkt. No. 264 13 at 19.)

14 New counsel made an appearance on October 10, 2017. The district court set the 15 dispositive motion hearing deadline for March 1, 2017 with trial scheduled for May 21, 2018. (Id.
16 Dkt. No. 269.) The undersigned magistrate judge held a discovery conference with the parties on 17 October 23, 2017. The Court ordered the parties to meet and confer and devise a discovery plan 18 and submit the plan by November 9, 2017. (Id. Dkt. No. 277.) The parties filed separate 19 submissions, but Plaintiffs have still not identified any additional United depositions. In any 20 event, it is too late. The extended fact discovery deadline came and went. Plaintiffs are bound by 21 the action or inaction of previous counsel.
